Quote of the Week How far you go in life depends on your being tender with the young, compassionate with the aged, sympathetic with the striving and tolerant of the weak and strong. Because someday in your life you will have been all of these.

3/8/11 The Students from RFA are doing many wonderful things to better themselves and help others. One program that the students are working on is called The "Boot Campaign". This program is raising money to help troops when they come back home. The boots can be purchased for around $120. Part of that money goes to the returning troops and the boots are donated to the less fortunate. The Students are also running a concession stand to raise money to help support the Boot Campaign. There is also a "Hope for Sudan" project. This Program is raising money for schools in Sudan. May 12th will be the second fund raising dinner for this cause. The students also help with a district wide "Pennies for Polio" campaign. They have raised enough money for 170 vaccines so far. Another great thing the students do is host a foreign exchange student for a year. This years student is here from Thailand, her name is Qwan. She poke for a few minutes telling us how this is her first time seeing snow! She loves to ski, and English has been very hard but she is catching on quickly. We really enjoyed having the students come and share what they are working on. We hope that there are some future Rotarians in the group!

Lost In Yonkers Will be playing
