Jeff Simons Superintendent

5-3-11 Grayson Ross, a local Acupuncturist spoke about his business. Natural Health Center 900 Erie Blvd. W. Rome. He spoke about how Acupuncture is nothing to be afraid of. It is a method of encouraging the body to promote natural healing and promote functioning. This is done by inserting very fine needles into specific anatomical points. Dr. Ross also uses other methods of treatment such as blunt probes, electronic stimulation, laser, heat and cold. Acupuncture can treat many issues such as arthritis, chronic pain, sciatica, appetite suppression, sinus pain, smoking planter, fascitis. Dr. Ross brought a lot of humor and interest to his presentation. He encourages us to visit and give him a try.
